

Fahrenheit 451 Bubble Sheet

Directions: Following are four characters from the novel. In the bubble blanks, write the character's thoughts as he/she considers what is happening on the page indicated. I have provided an example on the back of this sheet.

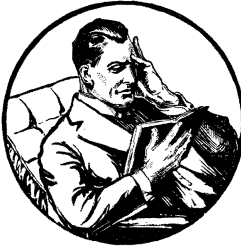

1.

Mildred (pages 76-77)

A large, empty, rounded rectangular bubble with a tail pointing to the left, intended for writing Mildred's thoughts.

2.

Guy Montag (p. 78)

A large, empty, rounded rectangular bubble with a tail pointing to the left, intended for writing Guy Montag's thoughts.

3.

Mr. Faber (p. 82)

A large, empty, rounded rectangular bubble with a tail pointing to the left, intended for writing Mr. Faber's thoughts.

4.

Mrs. Phelps (100)

A large, empty, rounded rectangular bubble with a tail pointing to the left, intended for writing Mrs. Phelps' thoughts.

Example:

If Guy would just loosen up a bit, I know he could learn to enjoy life more. He isn't like other firemen. He listens when I talk. He was upset by the dandelion game because he wants Millie to love him, and he wants to love her. He is beginning to notice things around him. He's asking questions...

Clarisse (pages 22-23)

Grading Rubric for Bubble Sheet

Element	Description	Points Possible	Points Earned
Neatness	You don't need to type, but your writing must be legible.	25
Content	What you have the character say must be an accurate reflection of the character's personality and what has happened in the plot so far.	50
Amount	Use my example as a guide. You should have a minimum of 5 simple sentences or 3 compound or complex sentences.	25
TOTAL		100

DUE DATE: _____